DEAR FRIENDS,

This year EFAA celebrates its 100th Anniversary of helping families get back on their feet. As we look back on the last century, two things have remained constant over the years; first, the enduring need for safety-net services to help families recover from hard times, and second, the tireless support from this community that works to ensure every family has the opportunity to thrive.

Whether you’ve been supporting EFAA for 30 years, or just learned about us this summer, your gifts of time, treasure, and talent carry forward EFAA’s century-old tradition of neighbors helping neighbors. In this year of celebrations, we are grateful for the caring people like you who have sustained our organization over the past 100 years and have allowed us to help hundreds of thousands of people along the way! Thank you for your commitment to EFAA’s mission.

In the coming pages, you will see the ways our work together offers families the tools to build a better future for themselves and their children. By investing in families, we strengthen the whole community.

This idea reflects the roots of our founding, and is our compass for the future. This remains EFAA’s commitment to our community—this place we all love—for the next 100 years.

To 100 years a neighbor, and 100 more!

Happy Birthday, EFAA!

KEVIN LUFF
2018 Board President

Executive Director
Carolina was working full-time and providing for her family when her partner and daughter’s father, who stayed home to care for their daughter, left. As a single parent facing the high costs of childcare, she fell behind financially and they were forced to leave their home.

Then, Carolina was connected with EFAA and they moved into short-term housing. Through her weekly meetings with her case manager, she was able to get bus tickets for school and work, groceries from the food pantry, and enroll her daughter in EFAA’s Children’s Program.

After sending out several resumes each day, she was able to find another job as a legal assistant. She and her daughter have moved out on their own and are now thriving.

EFAA was amazing. I was going through such an emotional and difficult time and they were so helpful. So supportive and encouraging. Having EFAA as a resource after hitting so many dead ends gave me the peace of mind and hope for the future that I needed to focus on finding a good job.

HOW WE DID IT

DEDICATED VOLUNTEERS AND DONORS HELPED STRENGTHEN OUR COMMUNITY.

22,307 HOURS

4,076 DONORS

4,076 committed donors working to ensure EFAA has the necessary resources to deliver on its mission.

20+ LOCAL AGENCIES

Partnered closely with over 20+ local service agencies to deliver coordinated and effective services.

“EFAA is the best example of what we should all be doing: neighbors helping neighbors. No other place tries harder to develop community than EFAA. Volunteering here means we are connecting with other people, broadening our horizons and creating joy in life.”

— DOUG AND PATTI

Food Bank Volunteers of Six Years
In June 2017, EFAA was accepted as a member of the Family Resource Center Association of Colorado, recognizing EFAA as a distinguished service provider in the work of strengthening families.

Today, EFAA is the City of Boulder’s Family Resource Center providing short and long term supports to help Boulder families become more resilient.

EFAA AS BOULDER’S FAMILY RESOURCE CENTER

1. Expanded programming that focuses on the whole family to break the cycle of poverty

2. Children’s focused case management to support every child in being happy, healthy and thriving

3. Educational community events to build support systems and expand learning opportunities

THIS MEANS ENHANCED SERVICES FOR FAMILIES COMING THROUGH OUR DOORS:
OUR IMPACT

TOGETHER, WE ARE CREATING PATHWAYS OUT OF POVERTY FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY.

95%
95% of participants reported that EFAA provided valuable support for themselves and their families.

84%
84% of families found permanent affordable housing after exiting EFAA’s Housing Programs.

164%
EFAA’s employment mobility program, Job Uptake for Motivated Parents (JUMP), saw a 164% average increase in income to support their families.

61
61 children participated in our after-school enrichment programming through EFAA’s Children’s Program.

350
EFAA’s Keep Families Housed program helped 350 families avoid homelessness. An impact evaluation found in addition to housing stability, that food security, income, and financial management skills improved, and children accessed critical health and education services.

“Working in a professional setting boosted my self-confidence. At first I was not sure how much I would know or be able to do, but I learned there’s a lot of things I’m good at... This program taught me how to write my resume and how to succeed in job interviews. The financial stability classes were amazingly helpful, too – not just regarding budgeting money, but also budgeting time and energy. I feel blessed.”

— ANGIE
JUMP Participant
With the boom and bust of local mining, the Spanish flu outbreak, and the effects of World War I stretching families, the local faith community, civic and women’s groups, and neighbors came together to create what is now EFAA to help people “unable to help themselves” with things like food, coal, and household goods. EFAA saw a 400 percent increase in need as inflation rates hit 20 percent or more. In 1979, EFAA expanded services to include housing for homeless families with children.

1918

As many as 25 percent of Boulder County residents relied on some form of relief aid during the Great Depression. EFAA worked hard to keep families fed, including partnering with the school district to provide free lunches and milk to undernourished children.

1920s + 1930s

1940s + 1950s

In 1953, EFAA was officially incorporated and served a fast-growing population as World War II ended and Boulder County’s economy grew.

1960s

1970s

EFAA began providing assistance in the form of food, basic medical care, clothing, transportation, and funds for rent and lodging in the belief that care for the whole family was critical to the health and success of children.
In the aftermath of the Great Recession, EFAA saw a dramatic increase in the number of families seeking help with housing. In response, EFAA expanded its housing stock, including housing in Louisville, Lafayette and Boulder. EFAA expanded opportunities to improve long-term wellbeing for families living in poverty and responded to the needs of displaced families after the 2013 flood.

As local need grew, EFAA worked with others in the community to form new nonprofits like Community Food Share and the OUR Center in Longmont to fill the need left by a reduction in federal assistance.

EFAA launched its first official rent-assistance-based homelessness prevention program to keep families in their homes and give them time to get back on their feet.

EFAA celebrates its 100-year anniversary!
To commemorate EFAA’s 100th Anniversary, EFAA launched the Centennial Endowment Campaign. The Centennial Endowment will ensure EFAA’s ability to meet the changing needs of our community for the next 100 years.

Since October 2017, nearly $1.5 million has been committed!† Thank you to the donors who made this vision a reality:

As a former Board member and longtime donor, we’ve been dreaming about establishing an endowment for EFAA for years. Now, in EFAA’s 100th year, we’ve collectively come together to make it happen. This fund will do so much good for our community in the years and decades to come. — DAN DAY

We extend special thanks to the many individuals, corporations, congregations, foundations and community groups that supported EFAA this year through generous financial and in-kind assistance from July 1, 2017 through June 30, 2018.

In addition to all that are listed here, we received support from nearly 3,000 individuals and organizations of less than $500. In order to compile this list, we diligently searched our records for gifts received during this time period to provide correct and heartfelt recognition. If your name is not listed, or if there is an error of some kind, we sincerely apologize. We are truly grateful for your support.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT.
