OUR MISSION

EFAA helps those in our community whose immediate needs for food, shelter and other basic necessities cannot be adequately met by other means, and supports their efforts toward financial stability or self-sufficiency.

DEAR FRIENDS,

This year EFAA celebrates its 100th Anniversary of helping families get back on their feet. As we look back on the last century, two things have remained constant over the years; first, the enduring need for safety-net services to help families recover from hard times, and second, the tireless support from this community that works to ensure every family has the opportunity to thrive.

Whether you've been supporting EFAA for 30 years, or just learned about us this summer, your gifts of time, treasure, and talent carry forward EFAA's century-old tradition of neighbors helping neighbors. In this year of celebrations, we are grateful for the caring people like you who have sustained our organization over the past 100 years and have allowed us to help hundreds of thousands of people along the way! Thank you for your commitment to EFAA's mission.

In the coming pages, you will see the ways our work together offers families the tools to build a better future for themselves and their children. By investing in families, we strengthen the whole community.

This idea reflects the roots of our founding, and is our compass for the future. This remains EFAA's commitment to our community—this place we all love—for the next 100 years.

To 100 years a neighbor, and 100 more!

Happy Birthday, EFAA!

EFAA WAS THERE FOR US

EFAA was amazing. I was going through such an emotional and difficult time and they were so helpful. So supportive and encouraging. Having EFAA as a resource after hitting so many dead ends gave me the peace of mind and hope for the future that I needed to focus on finding a good job. ”

Carolina was working full-time and providing for her family when her partner and daughter's father, who stayed home to care for their daughter, left. As a single parent facing the high costs of childcare, she fell behind financially and they were forced to leave their home.

Then, Carolina was connected with EFAA and they moved into short-term housing. Through her weekly meetings with her case manager, she was able to get bus tickets for school and work, groceries from the food pantry, and enroll her daughter in EFAA's Children's Program.

After sending out several resumes each day, she was able to find another job as a legal assistant. She and her daughter have moved out on their own and are now thriving.

EFAA AS BOULDER'S FAMILY RESOURCE CENTER

In June 2017, EFAA was accepted as a member of the Family Resource Center Association of Colorado, recognizing EFAA as a distinguished service provider in the work of strengthening families.

Today, EFAA is the City of Boulder's Family Resource Center providing short and long term supports to help Boulder families become more resilient.

THIS MEANS ENHANCED SERVICES FOR FAMILIES COMING THROUGH OUR DOORS:

1. Expanded programming that focuses on the whole family to break the cycle of poverty
  2. Children's focused case management to support every child in being happy, healthy and thriving
  3. Educational community events to build support systems and expand learning opportunities

WHOLE FAMILY.

84%

84% of families found permanent affordable housing after exiting EFAA's Housing Programs.

164%

EFAA's employment mobility program, Job Uptake for Motivated Parents (JUMP), saw a 164% average increase in income to support their families.

61

61 children participated in our after-school enrichment programming through EFAA's Children's Program.

350

EFAA's Keep Families Housed program helped 350 families avoid homelessness. An impact evaluation found in addition to housing stability, that food security, income, and financial management skills improved, and children accessed critical health and education services

Working in a professional setting boosted my self-confidence. At first I was not sure how much I would know or be able to do, but I learned there's a lot of things I'm good at... This program taught me how to write my resume and how to succeed in job interviews. The financial stability classes were amazingly helpful, too – not just regarding budgeting money, but also budgeting time and energy. I feel blessed. ”

A CENTURY OF HELPING FAMILIES GET BACK ON THEIR FEET AND THRIVE.

With the boom and bust of local mining, the Spanish flu outbreak, and the effects of World War I stretching families, the local faith community, civic and women's groups, and neighbors came together to create what is now EFAA to help people "unable to help themselves" with things like food, coal, and household goods.

1918

1920s + 1930s

1940s + 1950s

1960s

1970s

As many as 25 percent of Boulder County residents relied on some form of relief aid during the Great Depression.

EFAA worked hard to keep families fed, including partnering with the school district to provide free lunches and milk to undernourished children.

In 1953, EFAA was officially incorporated and served a fast-growing population as World War II ended and Boulder County's economy grew.

EFAA began providing assistance in the form of food, basic medical care, clothing, transportation, and funds for rent and lodging in the belief that care for the whole family was critical to the health and success of children.

EFAA saw a 400 percent increase in need as inflation rates hit 20 percent or more. In 1979, EFAA expanded services to include housing for homeless families with children.

As local need grew, EFAA worked with others in the community to form new nonprofits like Community Food Share and the OUR Center in Longmont to fill the need left by a reduction in federal assistance.

EFAA expanded opportunities to improve long-term wellbeing for families living in poverty and responded to the needs of displaced families after the 2013 flood.

1980s

1990s

2000s

2010s

2018

EFAA launched its first official rent-assistance-based homelessness prevention program to keep families in their homes and give them time to get back on their feet.

In the aftermath of the Great Recession, EFAA saw a dramatic increase in the number of families seeking help with housing.

In response, EFAA expanded its housing stock, including housing in Louisville, Lafayette and Boulder.

EFAA celebrates its 100-year anniversary!

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

As a former Board member and longtime donor, we've been dreaming about establishing an endowment for EFAA for years. Now, in EFAA's 100th year, we've collectively come together to make it happen. This fund will do so much good for our community in the years and decades to come. ”

— DAN DAY

Endowment Campaign Chair

To commemorate EFAA's 100th Anniversary, EFAA launched the Centennial Endowment Campaign. The Centennial Endowment will ensure EFAA's ability to meet the changing needs of our community for the next 100 years.

Since October 2017, nearly $1.5 million has been committed!†
