HELPING NEIGHBORS IN NEED

YOUR DONATION MAKES AN IMPACT

As many of us return to “life as normal”, our low-income neighbors will feel the financial impact of the pandemic for much longer. As those hardest-hit by COVID-19 work to build back wiped out savings and tackle new emergency debt, the need for a community safety net remains stronger than ever. Together, we can help our neighbors get back on their feet faster.

Thanks to you, our community is receiving critical assistance for rent, utilities, food, and more ...

THEN :

In the first six months of the pandemic, EFAA distributed $1.3M in direct financial assistance.

NOW :

Over the past six months, EFAA has distributed $2.2M in direct financial assistance.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN? :

Over a year after the start of the pandemic and the need hasn't let up. The financial hardship caused by the pandemic will impact low-income households for months and years to come.
