EFAA in Need of Gifts for Children and Teens this Holiday Season

December 6, 2021, BOULDER, CO – Emergency Family Assistance Association (EFAA) is in need of new and unwrapped gift donations for children and teens ages 0-18 as part of its annual Holiday Gift Room fundraiser, meant to provide gifts to families in need across Boulder County.

As many people return to “life as normal”, low-income families will feel the financial aftershocks of the pandemic for much longer. Those who are working to get back on their feet need help to make the holidays special for their children. EFAA invites the community to make a difference in the lives of local families this holiday season by supporting the Holiday Gift Room.

Among the organization’s most-needed items are puzzles, arts & crafts supplies, board books, stuffed animals, dolls, action figures, legos, train sets, outdoor toys, sports equipment, cosmetics, journals, purses & wallets, and more.

Donations are accepted on weekdays from 10am-3pm through December 10th. Please drop gifts off at 1575 Yarmouth Ave in Boulder at the loading zone on 16th St.

EFAA does not accept used items for the Holiday Gift Room. Donations must be new. Gifts must be unwrapped so parents can select age and gender-appropriate gifts. EFAA is unable to accept books or clothing.
